February 1, 2011

SUBJECT: Web-based Application

In an effort to create a more efficient process for providers and service recipients to apply for the RSP, Advanced Behavioral Health (ABH®) implemented a web-based application process in October 2010. Paper applications are currently being accepted; however, effective March 1, 2011, all applications must be submitted through the web-based application. Paper applications received after March 1, 2011 will be denied.

Providers may register for web-based application training by clicking on the link below: <http://www.abhct.com/SessionSummary.asp> or by calling the RSP customer service center at 1 (800) 658-4472.
